

Fred Walker – Environmental Engineer, E.I.T.

Summary

Mr. Walker is an environmental engineer with GBM^c & Associates. He provides engineering and technical support for engineering projects and water related studies.

Education

2007 BS Biological Engineering, University of Arkansas

Experience

Mr. Walker gained field and technical experience while working for the Ecological Engineering Group at the University of Arkansas. He assisted in stream assessments, watershed delineation, and technical writing. Mr. Walker performed several field tasks including: measuring DO, pH, temperature, specific conductivity, channel morphology, riparian characteristics, and instream structure.

Professional Affiliations and Licenses

Arkansas Engineer Intern No. 7196

American Society of Agricultural and Biological Engineers
